Message from the Chair

The Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle Competition Committee is excited to welcome you back for 2025. The Melbourne Royal Beef Carcase Competition provides breeders, commercial producers and schools and colleges with the opportunity to network and benchmark the quality of their livestock in one of Australia's best-regarded competitions.

With more than 300 participants involved annually, the Beef Carcase Competition provides learning opportunities and industry insights into the science and skill required to breed cattle to suit the domestic and export markets.

I would like to thank our presenting partner JBS Australia for their support of the Beef Carcase Competition. The new specifications for this year's competition align to optimum carcass requirements of the majority buyer (processor/supermarket). Bodies any lighter than the minimum specification are suitable for butcher trade buyers, and unfortunately without an auction, these buyers are incredibly hard to attract. Butcher Trade also often comes with custom processing which can result in utilising various sites. With the updated specifications, all animals will be processed at the one facility, increasing consistency of feedback and data.

I extend my thanks to the 2025 judges for their commitment to the Beef Carcase Competition at the Melbourne Royal Show. They bring immeasurable levels of experience and knowledge, and it is an honour to have them join us.

I also want to thank the Committee members, Gary Turnham, Sam Nelson, Cindy Smith, Matt Cooney, Jo McLauchlan, Vanessa Wenn, Geordie Elliot and Jess Sharp. They are extremely committed to the core values of competition and judging. The Committee keeps the exhibitor value and experience at the heart of what we do.

We know this is an annual opportunity to catch up with great friends and I invite you to join us at Australia's first ringside bar and meeting place. It is my favourite place at the Show, a chance to catch up, compare notes and share successes, and I would love to see you there.

We are all excited to bring you a fantastic Melbourne Royal Show. I look forward to hosting you and your families and friends in 2025.
