Proportion should be square, some dogs have a long body. The coat texture and colour is beautiful, as is the head expression. Needs more power from hind leg and ground covering by the gait.

There is some tendency to long bodies and top line in some cases is not straight. Best of Breed is a strong, well boned dog of nice head and correct movement.

Not so many entries. I found some Bichon whose trimming is a little bit heavy. The Best of Breed had a beautiful coat, was well balanced and trimmed, had a beautiful head expression, very good pigmentation, good movement but the withers should be taller.

JUDGES CRITIQUE

Mr Isumi Awashima

In general, very, very high quality. Well balanced and proportioned. Very good head expression and anatomies. As a herding dog, free, smooth and tireless movement. Australia is a country of development of this breed. I can estimate that Australia has abundant breeding stock and gene pools of high genetic quality.

Mr Yoshio Mori

A lovely entry of some really good dogs. I found mostly correct heads, that were very nicely marked, and all had lovely dark eyes. One or two dogs had bodies that were a trifle long, but all my winners had well balanced bodies, lovely coat colour, and correct mouths. I really enjoyed judging these lovely little dogs. They were well presented and shown.

JUDGES CRITIQUE

Mr Ramon Podesta

Main problems in the breed are the heads, many are not in correct proportions, the jaws are not wide enough, too much wrinkles. Best of Breed a nice female, elegant, powerful, square and correct movement.

Mr Izumi Awashima

Very good quality. Well balanced and proportioned (slightly longer than height). Every dog has double dew claws by the hind legs. Coat is rugged and long. Coat colour (both black and fawn) has enough pigment. Active and lively character and good size in male and female
