CEO's Message

MARK O'SULLIVAN
RASV CEO

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) is delighted to present the winners of the 2017 Royal Melbourne Wine Awards (RMWA), Australia's most respected wine show, recognising and rewarding excellence in Australian winemaking. For over 130 years, the RMWA has been awarding the most coveted wine trophies in Australia, renowned both nationally and internationally, to outstanding Australian wineries and winemakers.

An award win at the RMWA is an honour of long-standing tradition, and is highly regarded amongst the national industry and around the world, leading to increased sales, greater export opportunities and significant growth. The stature of the awards continues to attract significant entries with over 3130 wines entered this year from over 500 wineries. A conscious strategy to provide value to exhibitors has seen the continual evolution of the awards, to reflect industry trends, new production techniques and consumer interests.

One of the important benchmarks of the RMWA's reputation and reasons behind the high level of participation is the quality of judges that assess each entry and award these coveted trophies. We acknowledge and thank our Chair of Judges, Tom Carson for his invaluable expertise and thank him for his commitment and dedication to the delivery of not only this year's competition in his final year in the role, but over his three years at the helm. Tom's commitment to assembling diverse and expert judging panels, his wealth of knowledge and expertise is highly valued and we extend our gratitude.

For the 2018 Awards, RASV is thrilled to welcome winemaker Matt Harrop, an experienced and well-respected influencer in the wine industry, as Chair of Judges and we look forward to future successful programs under Matt's guidance. Our sincere thanks also to the 35 wine professionals who have dedicated their time and expertise to judging this year's event. We are honoured to be joined again by some of Australia's most respected and valued wine contributors. We extend a sincere thanks to the RMWA Committee for their time and support and in particular acknowledge the Committee Chair, Angie Bradbury.

The awards would not be possible without the generous contributions of our event sponsors and we thank Portavin Integrated Wine Services, Husky, Eventbrite, Plumm, Kubota, Time Out, Victorian Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Seabrook Family Wines.

Finally, to you our exhibitors, we extend our genuine appreciation for your support of the Awards, and for your continued high quality production of Australian wines.

Congratulations to all who have entered this year's RMWA and we look forward to another successful year of production in 2018.

Chair of Judges' Report

MR TOM CARSON
RMWA CHAIR OF JUDGES

After five days of judging over 3100 entries, this year's medal and trophy winners of the 2017 Royal Melbourne Wine Awards (RMWA) have been decided. Once again, it has been a great honour to lead the judging panel through the assessment of the nation's finest wines and we now proudly present you the results.

Over 500 wineries and winemakers entered this year's awards and the quality of the 2015 and 2016 vintage across both red and white wines and the 2017 Rieslings in particular, has been nothing short of outstanding.

Our expert panel of judges, who have had the privilege of tasting and deliberating on this year's entries, boasts extensive knowledge and experience across many different fields of the Australian wine industry, including: winemakers, retailers, educators, sommeliers, distributors, commentators and marketers. It is through this diversity and depth of understanding and capability, that the RMWA continues to provide credible feedback and value to Australian winemakers.

Thank you to all the judges for their support and commitment to this important role. The awards would not be possible without the dedication of the support team and organisers. I would also like to acknowledge the hard work of the steward team including Head Steward Sue Pettitt, her assistants Elita Veris and Jean-Pierre Last, and Back of House Adam Jones, as well as RASV's Epicure team including Michael Katoa, Adriana Robiana, Ania Ligas, Victoria Robinson and a special mention to Glenn Goodwin's outstanding work this year, they all work tirelessly to ensure the smooth, professional delivery of the awards.

On behalf of RASV, the RMWA committee, and all of the judging team, I thank all those who entered and supported the awards this year- without the contribution of Australian winemakers, the awards would not be the prestigious event they are today.

Congratulations to all the medal and trophy winners on your achievements in such a high calibre competition - we look forward to seeing how these awards will help shape your future success and provide new and greater opportunities.

It is my last year as chairman and I could not be happier with the result for the coveted Jimmy Watson, old vine Grenache, a precious and unique resource, now stands amongst the great wines of Australia, an inspired choice from the judges!

After completing a vintage Toby was (to his own pleasant surprise) accepted into the Post-Graduate Oenology course at Adelaide University.

HEEMSKERK PINOT NOIR, 2016 PINOT NOIR, HEEMSKERK WINES, TASMANIA

The original Heemskerk vineyard was developed by Graham Wiltshire in 1975 with partners Bill Fesq, a Sydney wine merchant and Colin Haselgrove from Reynella Wines. The trio recognised the potential of the Tasmanian wine industry early in the piece.

Heemskerk continues to capture the integrity and purity of Tasmanian terroir. Their viticulturist Jamie Hewet works tirelessly to ensure they capture the best Tasmanian fruit and the winemaking team led by Peter Munro employs new world winemaking techniques with old-world influences to produce outstanding examples of the varieties that fare best in this region.

The De Bortoli family story is one of determination and triumph that started nearly 90 years ago in war-torn Europe and is now told, generations later, across Australia.

Their heritage encompasses the universal story of immigrants making good in an adopted land, the rise and rise of the Australian wine industry and the tale of a hardworking and innovative family who considers good wine, good food and good friends to be among the true pleasures in life.

HOUSE OF CARDS THE ROYALS CHARDONNAY "QUEEN OF HEARTS", 2016 CHARDONNAY, HOUSE OF CARDS, MARGARET RIVER, WESTERN AUSTRALIA

The name House of Cards was inspired by the gamble that winemakers and growers take every vintage - you have to play the hand that you are dealt. House of Cards is owned and operated by Travis and Elizabeth Wray. They are personally involved with every single aspect; from growing the grapes through to winemaking, bottling, marketing and the selling of their wine. All fruit used to make House of Cards wine comes from their single vineyard situated on iconic Caves Road at the Northern end of the Margaret River Wine Region in Western Australia.

DOMINIQUE PORTET CABERNET SAUVIGNON, 2015, 2010 AND 2001 CABERNET SAUVIGNON PORTET WINEMAKERS, YARRA VALLEY, VICTORIA

Ninth-generation winemaker Dominique Portet chose the cool climate of aptly named Coldstream in the Yarra Valley as home to the eponymous winery he founded in 2000. It was the culmination of a tenacious search for grapegrowing terroir to rival that of his native Bordeaux – but also the start of a new chapter in a winemaking story that has its roots in France in the early 1700s. Now son Ben – generation 10 – heads the winemaking team, firmly observing the central tenets of this young yet historic estate: respect for tradition, understanding of site and an open mind towards contemporary practices that shape wines that are ever more refined and delicious
