CEO MESSAGE

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) is proud to present the results of the 2019 Australian International Coffee Awards (AICA).

We were thrilled to receive wide support from the industry with 805 entries from 151 exhibitors that were assessed over three days.

Of the domestic entrants, New South Wales submitted 182 entries from 30 exhibitors whilst our international entries were dominated by New Zealand with 83 entries from 11 exhibitors.

To all exhibitors, we thank you for your support of the AICA and the professionalism and quality that underpins such outstanding Australian and International product.

We welcomed 38 judges and six associate judges led by Head Judge, Melissa Caia to Melbourne Showgrounds to undertake this critical task. We thank the judges for their dedication, professionalism and enthusiasm in assessing the entries to a high standard.

The AICA is made possible by the support of valued sponsors, the expert opinions of our judges and dedication of the baristas, stewards and volunteers that work behind the scenes to allow the competition to take place.

We thank our team of stewards led by Kay Mladenovic and our team of baristas led by Adam Metelmann for their time and generosity in the delivery of the AICA.

We look forward to keeping you informed as we plan our eighth AICA in 2020.

HEAD JUDGE REPORT

Each year, I am surrounded by an amazing group of coffee professionals, industry peers, roasters and baristas to make the Australian International Coffee Awards (AICA) judging process happen.

During the calibration, the judges shared what coffee meant to them outside of the taste, flavours and enjoyment of the beverage. The main themes were the community feel of the industry, the worldwide connection that unites coffee professionals and the social aspect of people gathering to chat.

It was a great event and bigger than last year. It was terrific to have notable improvement in the quality of entries with more medals awarded this year than last. We had a noticeable increase in international entries, reflective of the AICA international status and the buoyant coffee industry.

We had a total of 38 judges and six associate judges donate their time. A big thank you to all of the judges and baristas who dedicated their time, generosity and professionalism to prepare and judge the 805 entries. I offer a special thanks to the panel chair judges Dragan Sestic, Levent Doganay, Matt Dessaix and Paul Asquith for leading each class.

The judges took time out of their business and work commitments to taste up to 20 coffees each day and make the AICA a success. You all do this for the love of coffee and the success of the competition, which I am very grateful of.

We wouldn't have been able to taste all the entries without Adam Metelmann, Head Barista, and his team of baristas, who carefully prepared and served all the coffees to brewing specifications.

Thank you to Michael Katoa, Danielle Burnett and the RASV team who worked behind the scenes to prepare and plan the AICA and support my role as Head Judge. A special mention to Head Steward Kay Mladenovic and the team of stewards making countless laps from back of house to front of house to promptly deliver the coffees.

Finally, congratulations to all the trophy and medal winners. They are well deserved and demonstrate that the prestige of the competition increases each year.

ENTRIES

The Australian International Coffee Awards (AICA), conducted by The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) is the country's first international coffee roasting competition and its popularity is a testament to the credibility of the judges and judging process.

A diverse judging panel of 45 coffee experts from around Australia and New Zealand, assessed entries over three days under the direction of Head Judge Melissa Caia at Melbourne Showgrounds.

The AICA awarded seven champion trophies to recognise and celebrate excellence in several key categories: Champion Australian Roaster, Champion International Roaster, Champion Direct Trade or Microlot Coffee, Champion Espresso, Champion Milk Based Coffee, Champion Soy Based Coffee and Champion Filter Coffee.

An overview of the 2019 AICA medal winners is presented in this booklet.
