Message from the CEO

It is with great excitement and anticipation that we look forward to the 2022 Melbourne Royal Show being held at Melbourne Showgrounds from Thursday 22 September to Sunday 2 October.

After we were unable to hold the Melbourne Royal Show in 2020 and 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we are committed to making this year's event a huge success for all involved.

We're especially proud to be holding the prestigious Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle competition. We know how important it is for you to celebrate the innovations and advancements in the industry.

The Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle program is a major feature at the 2022 Show, with a raft of new classes and celebrations. The Beef Cattle competition displays and judges more than 500 exhibits over multiple action-packed day – all seeking the glory of being declared the Melbourne Royal Supreme Champion. The 2022 schedule promises to be the best one yet.

Simmental Australia is celebrating 50 years and the competition has expanded to include Simmental percentage classes – this is a proud first in Australia and is unique to the 50th anniversary year. 2022 also sees Charolais celebrating their 50 years at the Melbourne Royal Show and Beef Shorthorns celebrating 200 years of the Coates herd book. A mini-feature – the Red Angus Classic – is going to be hotly-contested by passionate breeders that missed out on feature breed in 2021.

As always, the prestige and integrity of the competition is upheld by our panel of esteemed judges, and we are grateful for their commitment to excellence.

I would like to thank our Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle Committee for their passion and the ongoing advice, counsel and support that they provide to the Melbourne Royal team. The commitment and enthusiasm of David Bolton, Chair, and other committee members Noeleen Branson Allen Snaith, Sam Nelson, Duncan Newcomen, Cindy Smith and Gary Turnham, ensures that Melbourne Royal continues to present this world-class competition.

It would not be possible to present the Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle competition without the support and assistance of everyone involved. We want to acknowledge all our valued sponsors, partners, officials, volunteers, suppliers and, of course, our competitors. Your contributions make this a competition that everyone is proud to be involved in.

I invite you to enter the 2022 Beef Cattle competition and trust that you and your family and friends will enjoy all the fun of the Show.

Brad Jenkins
Chief Executive Officer

Message from the Chair

The Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle Competition Committee is excited to welcome you back for 2022.

After missing two years of the competition, the committee is happy to see the anticipation building among the community to compete for the coveted blue ribbons.

The Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle Competition provides breeders with the opportunity to showcase and benchmark their livestock in one of Australia's biggest and most prestigious cattle competitions. And we are excited to say that it has grown in 2022 – it is going to be a big year!

There are some new categories and celebrations this year. The competition in the Australian Lowline Feature Breed class is expected to heat up. Simmental Australia is celebrating 50 years and the competition has expanded to include Simmental percentage classes. This is a first in Australia and will be offered in this 50th anniversary year only. Another milestone sees Charolais celebrating their 50 years at the Melbourne Royal Show.

I also want to highlight the Red Angus Classic – this mini feature competition has been put together after Red Angus missed out on feature breed in 2021. It should be well contested and fun. We also have the Beef Shorthorns celebrating 200 years of the Coates herd book.

Our esteemed judging panel comes from across south east Australia. I extend my thanks to the 2022 judges for their commitment to the Beef Cattle Competition at the Melbourne Royal Show. They bring immeasurable levels of experience and knowledge, and it is an honour to have them join us

I also want to thank the Committee members, Duncan Newcomen, Allen Snaith, Gary Turnham, Sam Nelson and Cindy Smith. They are extremely committed to the core values of competition and judging. The Committee keeps the exhibitor value and experience at the heart of what we do. We also have the friendliest superintendents in the country, Ron Desira and Ryan McRae, back and in fine form for 2022.

We know this is an annual opportunity to catch up with great friends and I invite you to join us at Australia's only ringside bar and meeting place. It is my favourite place at the Show, a chance to catch up, compare notes and share successes, and I would love to see you there.

Don't forget the All Breeds Sale – this will be exclusive and open to the first 20 head that express interest. Funds raised from the sale of the Lowline Heifer are donated to Black Dog Ride in support of mental health awareness.

Our pinnacle event, the Beef Cattle Interbreed, will be held Saturday 1 October. Join us in celebrating the best of the best from the 2022 competition as we sash Supreme Beef Breed Exhibit.

We are all excited to bring you a fantastic Melbourne Royal Show. I look forward to hosting you and your families and friends in 2022.

David Bolton
Chair

Exhibitors must provide a signed veterinary certificate or laboratory report, listing animals and their identification upon entry.

Calf Spaces

Due to space restrictions, spaces cannot be booked for calves at foot. Calf spaces will only be provided where space permits.

Sawdust Bedding For Cattle – Principles For Good Management

To achieve the best results from bedding cattle on sawdust, the following system of management is recommended:

- a) Pick up manure at every opportunity.
- b) Avoid water spillage in stalls.
- c) Regularly smooth out the bed with the aim of assisting drying.
- d) Consider using rubber matting for front half of bed.
- e) Do not dig out the wet patches.
- f) Do not disturb the bedding base.
- g) Keep the top of the bed loose.

Experience has shown that properly managed bedding will last a full Show with little need for top up bedding, particularly with some classes of livestock.

The 2022 Show will see the strict enforcement of Special Regulation 26. If no tattoo is present at the point of inspection the exhibit will be disqualified from taking any further part in the competition.

Wellcom Supreme Sire Award

Supreme Sire Award – Recognising the Beef Industries 'Best of the Best'

The Supreme Sire Award provides an opportunity for exhibitors to display the commercial traits of their herd and be awarded for showcasing high quality beef genetics.

The $10,000 award can be won if in the same year the Sire of the Grand Champion Beef Carcase exhibit and the Sire of any one of the four Interbreed Supreme Champion Beef Breed Exhibits* are one and the same. The Grand Champion Beef Carcase exhibit must be either entered, managed or bred by the exhibitor of the winning Beef Cattle Interbreed Supreme Champion Beef Breed Exhibit.

Regulations:

1. This class is free to enter.
2. The exhibitor is responsible for notifying Melbourne Royal prior to the Show if their exhibits entered in the Beef Cattle and Beef Carcase Competitions may be eligible for the Award.
3. The Sire must be a fully registered animal with the applicable breed society.
4. For the Grand Champion Carcase animal to be eligible to compete for the award, the animal must be either entered, managed or bred by the same exhibitor as the Interbreed Supreme Champion Beef Breed Exhibit. This information must be submitted to the Melbourne Royal prior to entries closing. The sires name and corresponding Beef Cattle or Beef Carcase exhibitor must be supplied at this time to be eligible for the award.
5. The exhibitor must be either listed as an owner, co-owner or manager in both carcase and stud cases reflected across both entries, (the managing exhibitor may only have one of the legs of the carcase or stud entries).
6. The Melbourne Royal will collect either hair, blood or tissue samples from Grand Champion Beef Carcase Exhibit if that animal is eligible to compete. This sample will be stored until the results of the Beef Cattle Competition have been finalised.
7. At the conclusion of Beef Cattle Interbreed, if one of the four Interbreed Supreme Champion Beef Breed Exhibits are eligible for the Wellcom Supreme Sire Award, Melbourne Royal will collect either hair or blood samples to be used for DNA validation of the award.

2022 Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle Competition

8. In the event that the Award appears won, the managing exhibitor is responsible for providing a verified DNA sample of the nominated Sire of the winning animals. This will occur after the winner of the four Interbreed Supreme Champion Beef Breed Exhibits and the Grand Champion Carcase have been announced.
9. For sires that have already been DNA profiled, the managing exhibitor must provide Melbourne Royal permission to access the DNA profile if they have ownership or arrange for the owning breed society to grant permission.
10. Melbourne Royal will arrange for DNA testing of all samples.
11. Any animal which is deemed unable to be DNA referenced will be ineligible for the competition.
12. Melbourne Royal and associated DNA testing company will decide upon the validity of the DNA test.
13. The $10,000 bursary will only be provided to the exhibitor(s) at the conclusion of the DNA test results.
14. In the event of the award being won, Melbourne Royal will award prize money to the managing exhibitor. The exhibitor who receives the Wellcom Supreme Sire Award $10,000 cash prize is responsible in conjunction with Melbourne Royal for allocating funds to any third parties involved in the breeding and preparation of the winning exhibits.
15. The $10,000 bursary will remain in trust with Melbourne Royal until such a time as it is won by an exhibitor.
16. Nominations made after entries close will not be accepted. Entries cannot be made at the Melbourne Royal Show and will not be accepted on the day the Grand Champion Carcase announcement.

In an effort to ensure the integrity of the competition, the above listed rules may be subject to change prior to the close of entries into the 2022 Melbourne Royal Beef Cattle and Beef Carcase Competitions.
