Message from the CEO

Melbourne Royal is delighted to present the medal and trophy winners for the 2022 Australian Distilled Spirits Awards.

Established in 2015, the Australian Distilled Spirits Awards is the first and only national awards program recognising excellence in Australian distilled spirits and liqueurs.

Recognising the long tradition of distilling in Australia and the emergence of the new generation of spirits and liqueur producers, the Australian Distilled Spirits Awards provides Australian distillers with a valuable benchmarking opportunity to drive innovation and improve quality.

Over two days at Melbourne Showgrounds, 42 judges assembled to critique and provide commentary on each of the entries, with the panel led by head judge Seb Costello.

With such an outstanding quality of exhibits, we were thrilled to award 75 gold, 382 silver and 311 bronze medals. Over 11 categories, the 2022 Australian Distilled Spirits Awards attracted 863 entries from 208 exhibitors, with a record number of entries in the Whisky and Gin classes.

I particularly want to thank and acknowledge our Industry Advisory Group for their ongoing advice, counsel and support. The commitment, enthusiasm and passion of Seb Costello, Head Judge along with our other industry advisory group members Stuart Gregor, Sebastian Raeburn, Luke McCarthy, Sebastian Reaburn and Julian White who are all instrumental in ensuring the success of these awards; Melbourne Royal is most grateful for your involvement.

Medal and trophy winners have earned the Australian Distilled Spirits Awards seal of excellence and have opportunities to leverage their success and market medal-winning products using the Australian Distilled Spirits Awards seal of excellence.

We thank Australian Distilled Spirit Awards Trophy Sponsors BevChain, Cryer Malt, MCC Labels, Plasdene Glass-Pak and SANECTOR for their support along with Sponsors Dan Murphy's and StrangeLove, and industry supporter the Australian Distillers Association.

A special mention to Major Partner, the Victoria State Government; we greatly appreciate your involvement and thank you for all your support during this period.

We greatly appreciate the participation of the 208 Australian distillers and extend our congratulations to the successful medal and trophy winners. We look forward to celebrating and promoting your achievements over the coming months.

Message from the Head Judge

What a time to be an Australian distiller. It was incredible to see the amazing array and quality of Australian Spirits that were entered. And an honour to be the Head Judge for my third year.

First and foremost, I'd like to thank every one of the hard-working distillers who entered their spirits. Showing an incredible amount of courage and the desire to grow and improve, it's an extremely difficult thing to work so hard on a product and have it judged blind by your peers. To that, I am extremely indebted to each of you. This is how we will collectively become a world class industry.

I'd like to thank the Melbourne Royal team. Matthew Coleman (President) and the Board, Brad Jenkins (CEO), Damian Nieuwesteeg and every one of the awards program staff for all the effort they put in to make this a world class event. Melbourne Royal has been judging excellence for 174 years, from cows and sheep to wine, scones and jam, and more recently coffee and beer. Always searching for excellence, actively promoting many skilled makers across Australia.

When the Australian Distilled Spirits Awards started in 2015, Melbourne Royal brought this competition expertise to the distilling industry. Over the years I've seen them funnel their knowledge into each new year of awards. Continuing to invest in and build these awards to deliver incredibly well-run events with insight in running a competition that's fair and impartial, meticulous eye for detail and how they engage with all parties, is testament to their professionalism and dedication. For this, I know, we are all incredibly grateful.

Thanks to our 42 judges. Panels were made up of experts across the Australian spirits industry including distillers, bar owners, bartenders, drinks writers and other experts – such diversity of skill and perspective. Over 2 days they took great care with the products, painstakingly smelling, tasting, assessing, and discussing each spirit at length. Finding excellence across the category and providing constructive feedback to all entrants. Gratitude to each judge for their time, energy and expertise, for being so passionate about Australian spirits.

I'd like to especially acknowledge the panel chairs, Julian White, Luke McCarthy, Orlando Marzo, Tim Gniel, Shaun Byrne, Sebastian Reaburn, Lee Potter Cavanagh, Sam Bygrave, Jenna Hemsworth, Nicole Kimlin, Geoff Fewell, Ollie Margan and Fred Siggins. Without them we would not be blessed with such depth of knowledge in each category.

Our gratitude also to the stewards for volunteering time and effort. The professionalism and integrity they bring as they sort, pour, and distribute the exhibits to each panel is fantastic. Without the stewards these awards would not go ahead.

Annually The Awards are a chance to take stock of the industry. Each time I'm blown away by the level of product coming out of Australia. The standard is high and only improving. This growth would not be possible without the efforts of the Australian Distillers Association and all the state associations helping guide and build the industry.

To the Federal and State Governments, thank you for the incredible support to the Australian distilling industry. It's helped the industry grow in a safe, sustainable way, creating international interest in the products, and a tourism and regional boom for Australia. Now Australians can get a world class product that's locally made.

The ADSA hopes to contribute to and work closely with the industry. It does this through providing independent, impartial feedback, a chance to showcase a variety of Australian products and promoting the industry as a whole. I'm incredibly proud to be a part of what ADSA delivers.

It's been an honour to be Head Judge. Drink up, there is plenty to get tasting.

Sebastian Costello
