Message from the CEO

Melbourne Royal® is delighted to publish the results of the 2022 Melbourne Royal Wine Awards, and in particular acknowledge and congratulate the well-deserved medal winners.

Established in 1884, the Melbourne Royal Wine Awards is one of Australia's oldest and most respected wine shows recognising and rewarding excellence in Australian winemaking. 138 years later, these awards are seen as one of the ultimate recognitions of brilliance for winemakers across the country.

These awards provide a highly respected platform for wineries to benchmark their wines against industry standards and receive valuable feedback from an independent panel of experts. Thank you all the wineries who entered Melbourne Royal Wine Awards this year. We received 2,360 entries from 380 wineries representing 67 wine regions across Australia.

I thank our Wine Awards committee for their ongoing advice, counsel and support. The commitment, enthusiasm and passion of Chair, Samantha Isherwood, Chair of Judges Melanie Chester along with members Matt Harrop, Emma Brown, Jeni Port, Mark O'Callaghan and Rohan Smith is highly valued and greatly appreciated.

From Monday 17 – Friday 21 October, thirty judges, led by Chair of Judges, Melanie Chester, provided their skills and expertise across five days of judging at Melbourne Showgrounds. The 2022 judging panel consisted of exceptional industry knowledge and expertise. I sincerely thank all our judges for being an integral part of the success of these Awards and providing your time this year.

The judges awarded an amazing 172 gold, 259 silver and 662 bronze medals to wineries throughout Australia. To win a Melbourne Royal medal is an amazing achievement and wonderful recognition for all your hard work and commitment. All medal winners have earned the Melbourne Royal seal of excellence. They now have opportunities to leverage the success and market their medal-winning products by displaying the Melbourne

Royal seal of excellence on their packaging and marketing materials. Melbourne Royal trusts that you will enjoy great value and benefit from your success this year.

This year we are proudly celebrating 60 years since the first Jimmy Watson Memorial Trophy for Best Young Red was presented in 1962. The prestige of the winning a trophy in the Melbourne Royal Wines awards trophies continues to grow, particularly the Francois De Castella trophy for Best Young White Wine, the Trevor Mast Trophy for Best Shiraz, and the James Halliday Trophy for Best Pinot Noir.

It would not be possible to conduct the 2022 Melbourne Royal Wine Awards without the generous support and assistance of our valued partners and sponsors. Thank you to our Major Partners Plumm and the Victoria State Government for all their interests and support, along with our Trophy Sponsors BevChain, SANECTOR, Marilyn & Sons, MCC Labels and Seabrook Wines.

We are most grateful to all those who generously volunteer their valuable time to assist with the delivery of the awards. This year we had 30 volunteer stewards along six event staff and five back of house staff assist with judging and we greatly appreciate their involvement.

I also thank the Melbourne Royal team for the considerable thought, effort and commitment that went into organising and curating the 2022 Melbourne Royal Wine Awards judging and the Awards Presentation. It was an incredible team effort that you should be immensely proud of.

Finally, thank you to the Australian wineries who entered the 2022 Melbourne Royal Wine Awards and congratulations to all the medal winners. We look forward to celebrating and promoting your achievements with you over the coming months and to the Melbourne Royal Wine Awards continuing to grow and prosper with you in 2023.

Message from the Chair of Judges

My first involvement with this Wine Awards program was in 2011, as a junior steward while at university studying winemaking. To now lead the judging panel as head judge for the first time in 2022 is a real honour. This catalogue contains the results of the hard work of 30 judges from across Australia.

One privilege of my role is seeing all the delicious wines that bubble up from each panel and each class. Some of our judging highlights this year included:

2022 Aromatic whites

A cooler year for much of Australia, some of these aromatic wines were stunning. In fact, good enough to pip a chardonnay off the François de Castella trophy for Best Young White Wine for the first time since 2012. The wonderful Gruner Veltliner, made from a single vineyard in the Adelaide Hills, is spicy, fragrant, textured and a very exciting example of the variety. The Rieslings from across Australia were also incredible, from Clare, Adelaide Hills, Great Southern, Western Victoria and Tasmania, the quality and diversity amongst the wines was exciting. Along the same lines, a lovely little aromatic field blend, which won the Trophy for Best Blended White Wine, was also delicious. Lovely!

Grenache

Since a Grenache snagged the Jimmy in 2018, we have seen entry numbers in our awards continue to grow – and what a pleasure some of these wines were this year. The Jimmy Watson winner was a real beacon in this extremely consistent class, with its clear character and quality shining bright. It's a real pleasure to highlight the quality of wine that this producer, and many others in their state, are making with some incredible old vine material – both vines and resulting wines are real treasures.

Other red varieties

With two Touriga Nacional wines poured in the final Jimmy Watson taste off, it's hard to go past this as an unexpected highlight. A bright and fragrant Touriga blend with rose petal, fennel seed and red cherries grown by Yarra Yering and a lovely dark brambles, wet stone and gravelly tannin number from Pannell Enoteca were the two tasty culprits. The aromatic nature of this variety is very enticing when so well grown and made.

Many thanks to the many hands who helped with the show in 2022. The team at Melbourne Royal, led by Damian Nieuwesteeg made the week the real success. Damian's leadership and dedication to a great awards program sets a fantastic example – I can't thank him enough for his steady hand this year.

Big cheers to the wonderful squad of stewards, led by the wonderful Su Pettitt. This year's awards mark Sue's fifth and final year as head steward at the Melbourne Royal Wine Awards, and on behalf of the two head judges before me (both of whom worked with Su), I would like to express deep thanks and appreciation for Su's hard work over her tenure.

A huge thank you to the amazing judging panel, who gave up time away from their businesses and families to come to Melbourne to taste a heap of wines. I really love wine and celebrating our industry and it was a real pleasure to judge with those who feel the same.

Thank you to all exhibitors for entering their wines for our consideration and congratulations to all medal and trophy winners!
